▼ The Story of an Elite Noble of the Southern Kingdom of Ealdore (10/05/2018) The Thousand Year War ended with a cold peace. However, a civil war broke out between the northern Kingdom of the Holy Kingdom, and the southern Kingdom of Ealdore. Within these countries, a religious order's prince, the Elden Lord, ascended to power. The King of the Holy Kingdom was Jost and the King of Ealdore was Arnold. Jost, the High Lord of the Holy Kingdom, sacrificed himself to suppress the rebels. However, not only did the rebellion not stop, it was making inroads into Jost's territory. The war between the Kingdoms continued, until it reached a stalemate. The war ended with a cold peace, and Jost was acquitted of all charges. The Elden Lord and the Elden Lord's retainer, Alm, were resurrected as the Kingdom of Ealdore's new rulers. Arnold made his capital the Holy City of Neo-Sturfeld. Jost made the Holy Kingdom of Neo-Sturfeld his base, and the Holy Kingdom of Neo-Sturfeld became his retainer. However, Jost was assassinated by unknown assassins. The Kingdom of Neo-Sturfeld was a direct successor to the Holy Kingdom of Neo-Sturfeld. Alm, who was unable to ascend the throne, resolved to take advantage of the situation. At first, Alm appealed to the people and gained a formidable base of support. However, the military situation was deteriorating, and Alm began to weaken. The late King of Neo-Sturfeld expressed his intention to entrust the throne to Alm, and died from illness. In order to make way for his heir, Alm made a deal with Arnold, the enemy King of Neo-Sturfeld, who had a grudge against his old retainer. Jost was killed, and a law prohibiting the creation of joint Noble families was enacted. Then, Alm manipulated the public and ascended the throne. Alm's retainer, Noz, worked to unite the people behind the new monarch. However, because Noz understood Alm's motives, there was a gulf between them. Alm ascended to the throne, and Noz was crushed. Alm established an absolute monarchy, and banished Noz. However, Noz was able to retain the support of some nobles. He formed an alliance with the Ancients, a religious order; and bff6bb2d33
